The Baie de Somme is now the tenth ‘Grand Site de France’. For the Baie de Somme is part of the Oise Basin, once a very rich area for fossil plants. The area is now a protected site, and home to a large number of birds.

The Parc des Marquenterre

Looking for a unique stay close to the Baie de Somme, which offers different books and a cultural and historical programme? You can enjoy the nature reserve of the Parc des Marquenterre from the beach and from the visitor centre. The Parc des Marquenterre is a nature reserve of 13,000 hectares, covering the Baie de Somme and the hinterland, including the coastal forests of the Picardie region. The Parc des Marquenterre is a haven of tranquility, with its beaches, forests, and rare wildlife. It is a natural and cultural heritage site, and offers a wide range of activities, from bird-watching to sea-kayaking.

The ‘Bouches du Ponts’ Houelle

The ‘Bouches du Ponts’ Houelle is a site of interest for nature lovers. It is a natural reserve, with trees, bushes, and flowers. The Houelle is a nature reserve, with its beaches, forests, and rare wildlife. It is a natural and cultural heritage site, and offers a wide range of activities, from bird-watching to sea-kayaking.

The Collegiate Church of Saint-Vulfran

Looking for a church? The Collegiate Church of Saint-Vulfran is a remarkable building. It is a site of interest for nature lovers. It is a natural and cultural heritage site, and offers a wide range of activities, from bird-watching to sea-kayaking.

The Abbey and Abbey Church of Saint-Riquier

The Abbey and Abbey Church of Saint-Riquier is a site of interest for nature lovers. It is a natural and cultural heritage site, and offers a wide range of activities, from bird-watching to sea-kayaking.

The Abbey of Valloires and its Gardens

The Abbey of Valloires and its Gardens is a site of interest for nature lovers. It is a natural and cultural heritage site, and offers a wide range of activities, from bird-watching to sea-kayaking.

The Baie de Somme Wildlife Centre

The Baie de Somme Wildlife Centre is a site of interest for nature lovers. It is a natural and cultural heritage site, and offers a wide range of activities, from bird-watching to sea-kayaking.

The Somme, so close to you

By road:

- A16 - Paris-Calais
- A20 - Reims-Rouen
- A28 - Abbeville-Rouen
- A26 - Calais-Reims

By train:

- Station: Gare TGV Haute Picardie
- A20 - Reims-Rouen
- A28 - Abbeville-Rouen
- A26 - Calais-Reims

By motorway:

- A16 - Paris-Calais
- A20 - Reims-Rouen
- A28 - Abbeville-Rouen
- A26 - Calais-Reims

By air:

- Albert-Picardie Airport
- Beauvais-Tillé Airport
- Roissy-Charles de Gaulle Airport

By sea:

- Ferries and the Channel Tunnel

Find all our tourism information on www.visit-somme.com Read our newsletter on www.somme-tourisme.com
The Hôtel de Ville in Amiens, which was the seat of the government and the center of the cultural and political life of the city, has a large hall where exhibitions and conferences are held. It is open to the public and has a fine collection of paintings, sculptures, and objets d'art. The weather is fine, and the sun is shining brightly. We are walking through the streets of Amiens, passing by old buildings and ancient monuments. The city is full of life, with people going about their business. We see a group of children playing in the park, and a couple walking hand in hand. The atmosphere is lively and cheerful. We are enjoying our stroll and feeling very much at home in this charming city. Amiens is a city of art and history, with many beautiful buildings and monuments to explore. We are looking forward to our visit and are sure to have a wonderful time.